Program

9:20 Welcome and Introductions, Explanation of Program

9:30 –10:20 Mrs. Jennifer Triplett-Winston:
Being a supportive parent without being a “BFF” – how to give children what they need while still maintaining healthy parent-child boundaries and clearly defined roles that help students learn how to function with structure and to respect authority

10:20-10:30 Break

10:30-11:20 Mrs. Ameerah Vickers:
Developing a better understanding of your child’s needs in order to become a better advocate

11:20-11:30 Break

11:30-12:20 Ms. Breyonna Miller:
WYD? Exploring Social Media.—The workshop will introduce parents to common themes and trends in social media that they may not be familiar with, what the most popular platforms are (and aren’t), and the ways in which teens of today communicate with each other that may be different from even 5 years ago, and what parents/adults should look out for

12:20-12:25 Evaluations

12:30-1:30 Buffet Lunch with students (in Ed. Center)

1:30 Adjourn

Notes
18th Annual Parent Symposium
Saturday November 17, 2018
9:00 1:30 PM

BE INFORMED, BE EMPOWERED,
BE A PARENT

TOPICS COVERED:

SOCIAL MEDIA
BEING PREPARED TO TALK TO SCHOOLS
PARENT- CHILD RELATIONSHIPS
ON THE PATH TO COLLEGE

WELLS FARGO AUDITORIUM
5 LIBERTY STREET, ROOM 115

“Providing the tools to build academic and social success in high school, college, and beyond”